We've really gone to town to make Sapphire buses smart, stylish and comfortable.

Take a look on the right to see some of the special Sapphire features.

Sapphire route 280 runs frequently throughout the day while the X8 is a great choice for commuters.

There's a handy guide to which bus goes where on the last page.

Sapphire's easy to use! Just go to your nearest bus stop, raise your hand in good time when you see the bus approaching and pay the driver when you get on (or show your pass or m-ticket).

Fare information can be found at arrivabus.co.uk or go online to download the Arriva m-ticket app and find the tickets you can buy in advance on your smartphone.

Oxford

Oxford's a great place to go with a real buzz to the place - and so easy on Sapphire X8 and 280!

Centuries of patient learning are all around you in the city's colleges - mellow stone buildings that are a feast for the eyes and gladden the soul. Even their names have magic - Corpus Christi, Balliol, All Souls, Merton, Christchurch...

Rest awhile in the world-famous Ashmolean museum and art gallery, where everything from Roman antiquities to pre-Raphaelite paintings will refresh your spirit. Refresh your body, too - there are so many great places to eat from on-the-go sandwich bars and coffee shops to some amazingly good restaurants, and now with the brand new Westgate Shopping Centre, there's so much to explore!

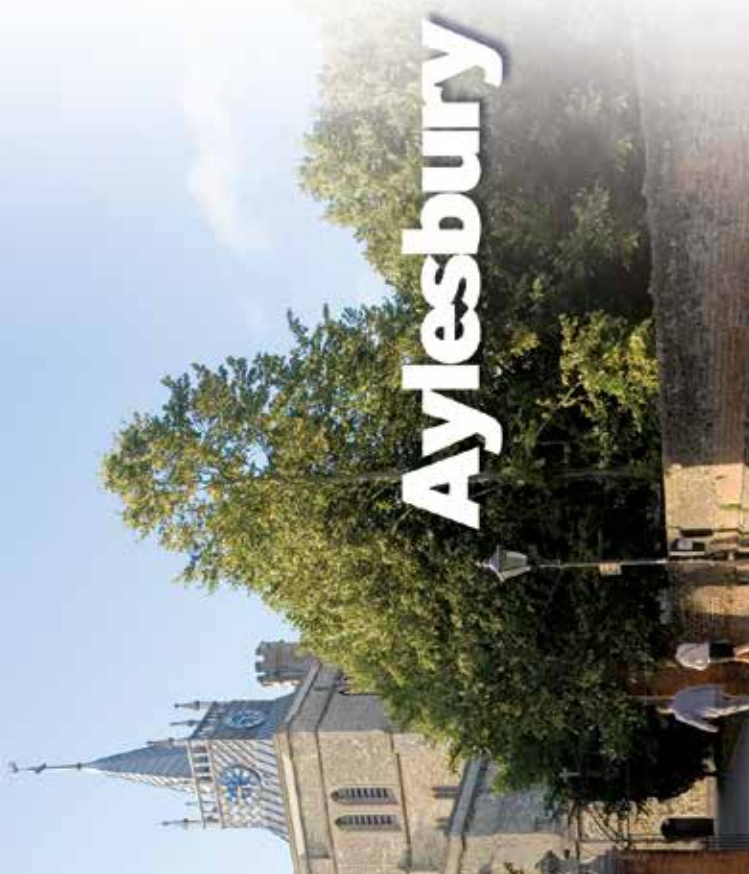

Take a punt on the Thames, wander through Christchurch Meadow or just flex the plastic in the busy city centre shopping streets. Here you'll find everything from high street names, great bookshops to fabulous little designer places, and for a treat look round the covered market - it's a cut above most, but there are still bargains to be found, a great place to wander around and enjoy!

Aylesbury

Aylesbury is a place of wonderful contrasts.

Where modern undercover shopping malls with favourite high street names complement the old winding streets that run through the heart of the town and radiate from the Market Square. The market's been part of the town's life since the 13th century.

St Mary's church stands proudly over the town, and around every corner there's a tale to be told. For example, Henry VIII is said to have wooed Anne Boleyn at the King's Head. Roald Dahl conjured up his classic children's tales near Aylesbury, and his work is now celebrated at the town's County Museum and Roald Dahl Gallery.

Market Days are Wednesdays, Fridays and Saturdays, and there's a farmer's market on the fourth Tuesday of the month.

Thame

Thame is a lovely market town with oodles of character and a fine parish church. Interesting shops and cafés line the broad High Street, which grew up around a 13th-century market.

Opposite the 15th-century timber framed Bird Cage Inn is the 18th-century Spread Eagle Hotel. In the 1920s it became famous for its landlord John Fothergill who lavished service on those he liked and was rude to those he didn't! Among the former were authors HG Wells, Graham Greene and Evelyn Waugh; among the latter were commercial travellers, farmers and rich Oxford undergraduates.
